

Natalie Henderson

Natalie Henderson is a Professional Football Coach. She is currently England Head Coach for the WU16's+U17's and was previously Newcastle United Men's Academy YDP Lead Phase Coach.

Natalie was the first ever female coach to be employed full time in a Premier League Male Academy and spent 8 years of her coaching career there. She was the only female to be a Lead Phase Coach within the Youth Development Phase in a PL academy (Category 1) right up until she left in 2021.

As a person she is an outstanding individual but it's her qualifications and determination to achieve results which is exceptional. Her technical knowledge and ability is also underpinned by her creativity and she has developed the Padlocked Journals used in the JS8 programmes which enable the girls to visualise, record and map out their
